

Make the Connection

Genesis Joy House offers a Resource Center that connects homeless veterans and our community with resources to obtain and maintain financial stability, permanent housing, and relationship sustainment.

We partner with local and national experts in homelessness, mental health, and substance abuse to receive up-to-date, comprehensive toolkits to help individuals become the best they can be.

Genesis offers a holistic approach to provide support that looks at the whole person, not just your mental health needs. This support also considers your physical, emotional, social and spiritual wellbeing.

Our resource center has proven to guide homeless veterans and our community who struggle with family crisis, financial devastation, mental health and many other limiting factors excel. Our many resources offer accountability and growth opportunities that allow participants to thrive.

Genesis' expectation of participants in the program is to utilize the provided opportunities and resources to excel by securing permanent housing and employment.

If you're willing to put in the work, it is time to say goodbye to the lack of a stable home, job and continued broken relationships.

Connect with a genuine cause rising above it all, and say hello to a home, a career, and a family.

To change anything, you must take the necessary steps to make that change.

Genesis Joy House is where you start.

JOY=Jesus, Others, Yourself!
